The Blue Hill Brass has been delighting audiences for over twenty five years. Whether playing a formal concert or wedding, strolling the grounds of a country fair, or ensuring the success of a special party, a Blue Hill Brass performance is guaranteed to make you smile! Over the years, the group has performed extensively throughout New England at such events as the Eastern States Exposition in Springfield, Massachusetts; The Mt. Washington Hotel in New Hampshire; The University of Maine at Orono; The University of Maine at Presque Isle; Bates College; The Union Fair; The Fryeburg Fair; The Bangor Fair; the Yarmouth Clam Festival; Belfast Days; Heritage Days, Bath; Sugarloaf-USA; The Maine Festival, MPBN Radio; and The Great Went Phish Festival in Limestone; and, The Martha's Vineyard Agricultural Fair.

Members of the group, some of Maine's most prominent and active musicians, perform wherever fine music is heard. Group members have played with the foremost musical ensembles in the state including the Portland Symphony Orchestra, the Bangor Symphony Orchestra, the Al Corey Orchestra, and the Maine Chamber Ensemble. Members of the group are: Curt Brossmer and Allen Graffam, trumpets; Stephen Norris, trombone; and Dr. Paul Greenstone, tuba.

Performances by the Blue Hill Brass feature music of the past five centuries, but even more importantly, they feature a great time for all. The tradition of fine entertainment continues as the Blue Hill Brass' current season is under way. This talented group of versatile musicians will make any event exciting, memorable and FUN!
